About Us

We met at a music festival almost 15 years ago. Although we were both in relationships with other people at the time, we quickly became friends due to our shared interests, hobbies and friendships. Over those years we both faced many personal challenges; however, those challenges brought us together as friends, leading us to begin dating and eventually get married. Our long-standing friendship has made us professionally, personally, financially, and spiritually strong as a couple.

We live in a small community of 3,200 people in southern Minnesota. Although our community is small, it offers so many wonderful things. We have a community pool, several parks, an amazing walking trail, a historic movie theatre and several county and state parks within a short driving distance.

As a couple, we have a shared love of adventure. We enjoy traveling across the country by air or by camper. We have traveled from the North Shore of Minnesota all the way to the Gulf of Mexico. We have also traveled as far west as Nevada.
