Dear Mary and Friends:

Locks of Compassion is a reminder to all Minnesotans of the importance of understanding one another and actively using compassion in our daily lives. At a time when there is a focus on what divides us, Locks of Compassion is a visual reminder of what unites us.

Approaching our neighbors with kindness and lending a hand to someone in need creates a brighter future for everyone in our community. Thank you to Catholic Charities for doing this important work and showing our children the power of compassion. I wish you continued success as you carry out this initiative.

Sincerely,
